Erratum: Inside view of book is actually the inside contents of another title of a different topic. The book is a great introduction to biblical and semitic rhetoric (related to, but not identical with classical rhetoric). The author is a founder and president of the international society for the study of biblical and semitic rhetoric, see can go to the website at [...]. Chiasm or introverted parallelism is a key component found in ancient near eastern and Greco-Roman literature, from 800 BCE to 500 CE. The central piece of the A B C D C' B' A' can sometimes be mysterious or ambivalent and not always the central theme or focus. The works of Albert Vanhoye are also featured here.
