Of the many books you'll read during your lifetime, there are those few that stay with you. For me, Speak with Courage is one of those books, and my copy is filled with margin notes and brightly colored Post-It notes. Speak with Courage is sincere, witty, positive, clear, and insightful, and by the end of the book I no longer felt anxiety and animosity towards public speaking—for the first time in my life. Speak with Courage is an enjoyable read from beginning to end, and I highly recommend this book to everyone—whether or not you fear public speaking.
