I thought that this book was fantastic. I could not put it down once I began to read it. I did not feel at all that this book was "in your face religious." If you are a Christian who trusts in the Lord, then this book is a reminder that God never gives you more than you can handle. This book covers all aspects of being a stepmom from beginning all the way through the rest of your life. I now use it as a reference for when I have rough days, and need a little bit of encouragement. This should be the very first book that every step mother ever reads!!!

While a very nice book, way too in-your-face religious for me. It seems as if every other word is God. I do consider myself a christian, but even this was over the top for me. If you are looking for a spiritual read, this is the one. If you are looking for a stepparenting guide, this is not for you.

I bought this for my daughter and she loved it. She has three step children whom she loves as her own. She said it was a perfect - totally reflecting her feelings & encouragement too for her
