Customer Reviews

The need to tediously plow through back issues of various industry magazines, request information from trade associations, search the library and/or bookstore, or call (expensive) consultants and professional advisers is now obsolete. Every Nonprofit manager now has an easier way to find listings of management resources. This book is the only book out there which provides instant answers to all questions concerning nonprofit-oriented product and service providers, Internet sites, funding sources, publications, associations support and advocacy groups, and much more. And the best part is that it comes with a CD-Rom packed with even more information.
